Céline Hofer advises and litigates primarily in the areas of employment and family law. In employment law, she assists both employers and employees in private as well as in public employment law. In family law, she is specialized in proceedings to protect the marital union and divorce proceedings, matters before the KESB and the structuring of marriage and inheritance contracts.

Thanks to her additional education in mediation, she knows how to reach amicable solutions. Where necessary, however, she also pursues the judicial or official path with full commitment.
